An Insider's Talk with Matt Komo

"When we complete a house, what brings our team real joy is knowing that we've helped make a beautiful and enduring home where our client will feel comfortable, share life experiences, and make memories with family and friends," says Matt Komo, president of MJK Homes, Inc.

A premier builder of high quality, high comfort, low maintenance residences in the Bay area, MJK Homes focuses on taking the stress out of the construction process, so you can enjoy watching your dream home take shape.

With an eye to creating a seamless transition between indoor/outdoor living and entertaining, MJK Homes brings a meticulous attention to detail in helping you select the materials and technologies that provide comfort, convenience, and reliability.

Natural wood, metals, and stone support the indoor/outdoor lifestyle, environmentally-friendly construction methods help preserve resources, and advanced technologies can control the home's lighting, security, temperature, audio/video systems and more, remotely and efficiently.

Parallel Approach

"We take a parallel approach from the beginning, drawing together all the professionals whose expertise will give our clients the quality home they expect," describes Matt.

From architectural design, to landscape and interior design, contractors, and consultants, MJK oversees the coordination of each client's team to ensure everything is completed on schedule and as planned.

"This offers our clients the opportunity to clearly define their expectations to the whole team, so there are no surprises," Matt explains.

"Consultants can suggest innovations early in the process, reducing change orders that increase costs. Design elements can be adjusted to make the home more efficient, comfortable, and functional. The result is a healthier, more comfortable home, a home that our clients can enjoy for a lifetime."

With its focus on communication and transparency, MJK Homes enjoys a solid reputation for character, integrity, and honesty.

"Relationships are important to us, and we want our clients to know that we are always looking out for their best interests," emphasizes Matt. "Building your dream home should be fun, and as stress-free as possible. MJK Homes makes sure of it!"
